LONDON, Dec. 1.—The Austrian emperor has received the resignations of Minister of Interior Heinhold, Minister of Commerce Bonnot and Minister of Finance Mainfeldon. This is an important change. Heretofore the Teuton cabinets have remained intact. Coming simultaneously with the kaiser's visit to Vienna, many rumors are abroad. Rome thinks that the kaiser endeavored to stop Austria's endeavor to secure peace. It is understood that Berlin desired separate peace with each of the allies and thus break the alliance and crush England. Austria wants lasting peace.

Austria was opposed to the idea. Rumania will deliver its ultimatum to Austria when the allies concentrate. There are five hundred thousand in the Balkans. Bucharest has reported. Partisans and adversaries came to blows when King Ferdinand read his speech at the opening session of parliament. It is understood that Austria opposes the idea of Rumanian domination of the Balkans. Their destination is unknown.
